Value

$10,000 per annum

Tenure

The scholarship will normally have a value of between $10 000 - $20 000 annually and will be payable in fortnightly instalments (approx $370 - $750 per fortnight). Where more than one scholarship is awarded in any year the value may be adjusted accordingly. The scholarship will normally be tenable for 1 year, with the possibility of consideration for renewal, upon application to the UNSW Graduate Research School, for each of the degrees in which the recipient is enrolled up to a maximum of 2 years for a Masters student and up to 3 years for a PhD student, and subject to satisfactory academic progress.

Outline

The scholarship was established to assist students to undertake postgraduate study in architecture in the Faculty of the Built Environment at UNSW.

Eligibility

This scholarship is available to both international and local students. Scholarship recipients must be undertaking full-time postgraduate study in the Faculty of the Built Environment at UNSW. The scholarship is open to graduates from UNSW or from any other institution approved by the Dean of the Faculty of the Built Environment - having completed the Degree of Bachelor of Architecture (or its equivalent), or a degree in an Architecture related field, as determined by the Dean. The successful applicant must be enrolled within three months of accepting the award and may, with the permission of the Dean, be permitted to undertake up to 20 hours of paid employment in each week. Each applicant will be assessed on the basis of academic merit. The Scholarship recipient may hold another Scholarship or Award with permission of the Graduate Research School.

How to Apply

Completed application forms and any supporting documentation should be scanned and emailed (preferably as a single pdf document) to the Graduate Research School on scholarships.grs@unsw.edu.au by the specified closing date.
